INTRODUCTION

Middle East Office of Accreditation and Authentication is an academic accreditation council responsible for evaluating secondary education, higher education and online universities issued from outside of the UAE. MEOAA facilitates foreign students to transfer their credits from any international or regional university. Credits are easily transferable from any international university or online university through our credit equalizing services. We at MEOAA, evaluate and assess your institute and credits to meet international standards of academics. It provides you with a prerequisite for your next academic endeavor but also open new doors of employment opportunities for you in the Middle East region.
